Application to drive a Lower Performance Supercharged/ Turbocharged Vehicle

Road Safety (Drivers) Regulations 1999 – Regulation 211

This form is to be used by a probationary driver to apply for permission to drive some lower-performance turbocharged or supercharged cars with greater fuel-efficiency.

Permission may be granted for vehicles that meet the criteria below.

What lower performance vehicles can be driven?

Vehicles must not be 8 cylinders or more and will be considered if they are:

- turbocharged or supercharged with a power to weight ratio of less than 100kW per tonne;
- turbocharged or supercharged with a power to weight ratio between 100kW and 125kW per tonne and that are considered to be a family type vehicle (4 or more seats) rather than a sports type vehicle.

What is a family type vehicle?

A family type vehicle is typically a sedan, station wagon or hatch used to carry families with 4 or more seats and when manufactured was equipped with child restraint anchorages. A family type vehicle does not include sports cars (eg a two door coupe) or the sports oriented variant of a specific model range.

Examples of vehicles that are not considered to meet the criteria include:

AUDI TT QUATTRO 2D COUPE 4 1781 cc TURBO Multi 6 speed Manual
BMW 335i E92 2D COUPE 6 2979 cc TWIN TURBO F/INJ 6 speed Automatic
FORD FALCON XR6 TURBO BA 4D SEDAN 6 3984 cc TURBO Multi 5 speed Manual
MAZDA 6 MPS 5D SEDAN 4 2261 cc TURBO F/INJ 6 speed Manual
SUBARU IMPREZA WRX 4D SEDAN 4 1994 cc TURBO Multi 5 speed Manual

How do/will I apply for permission?

Complete this application and send it to:

VicRoads reserves the right to cancel your permission to drive the vehicle if your driver licence is cancelled or suspended. A letter will be sent to you to advise you of VicRoads' intention to cancel permission, and you will be allowed an opportunity to show why you should be permitted to retain permission. If you do not respond to the notice within the required time, the exemption will be cancelled without further notice.

NOTE

The personal information that you provide on this form will be used by VicRoads to assess your application for an exemption under Regulation 211A(3) of the Road Safety (Drivers) Regulations 1999. Failure to provide the information may result in your application not being processed.

The personal information we collect from you in association with your application may be used only in accordance with the Road Safety Act 1986 and associated Regulations or as otherwise required by law. Your personal information may be disclosed to contractors and agents of VicRoads, law enforcement agencies or Courts authorised to collect it.
